Highlands Ranch Metro District director election results

In the initial count of votes for the Highlands Ranch Metro District director election yesterday, election judges concluded they weren't satisfied with the accuracy of their count.

After reviewing the total number of ballots cast and while recounting all ballots, the judges discovered an error in the election judges' tally sheet provided by the Highlands Ranch Metro District. Judges counted votes throughout the day today to ensure an accurate vote count for the election. That is the Metro District's first priority.

Election results, shown below, are also posted on our website at www.highlandsranch.org/vote.
