More than 70 service providers expected for Senior Health and Information Fair

Need a good handyman? Looking for a place to get solid legal and financial advice? Find what you are looking for at the Highlands Ranch Senior Health and Information Fair Saturday, Nov. 12 from 9 a.m. to noon at the Recreation Center at Eastridge in Highlands Ranch. Adults of all ages are welcome.

The event will assemble service providers under one roof, making it easy to gather information on multiple topics in one location. In addition, a variety of free, simple health screenings will be offered, and educational breakout sessions will be offered from noon to 3 p.m. Breakout sessions will include topics on identity theft and fraud prevention, organizing your legal paperwork and Medicare choices.

More than 70 service providers will be at the event, including Accessible Systems, McTeam Realty, Brookdale Memory Care, Douglas County Veterans Affairs, Home Care Assistance, Sky Ridge Medical Center, South Denver Cardiology Associates, Douglas County Sheriff's Office, Life Care Center of Stonegate and Littleton, Philips Lifeline, Homewatch Caregivers, the Parkinson Association, Vaughn Law Firm and many more.

This event is presented by the Highlands Ranch Metro District and Highlands Ranch Community Association. Dispatch Health is the exclusive event sponsor. The Recreation Center at Eastridge is located at 9568 S. University Blvd., Highlands Ranch.

For more information about the Senior Health and Information Fair, please contact Senior Outreach Coordinator Jodie McCann at 720-240-4922 or jmccann@highlandsranch.org.

Founded in 1981 as the local government in Highlands Ranch, Colorado, the Metro District provides a variety of municipal services to this planned community of 96,000 people. Learn more about the Metro District at www.highlandsranch.org.
