The Six Million Dollar Band to Perform 80s Music at Summer's Sunset Concert Aug. 25

People of all ages are invited to an evening of music, food and friends at the Summer's Sunset Concert at Civic Green Park Aug. 25 featuring The Six Million Dollar Band. This free concert is presented by the Highlands Ranch Metro District, Highlands Ranch Cultural Affairs Association and Highlands Ranch Community Association. The concert will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Three food trucks will have food and drinks available for purchase. Simply Pizza will provide its specialty wood fired pizza, El Toro the Tot will serve specialty burgers and tater tots, and Coaches Scoop will bring its frozen desserts. The food trucks will be ready to serve at 6 p.m. and the band will begin playing at 6:30, so arrive early to buy food and find a seat.

The presentation of a time capsule will take place, commemorating the 35th anniversary of our community - with a plan to open the time capsule at the community's 50th anniversary in 2031. This time capsule will include examples of current technology, news of 2016, along with future predictions.

Please note that dogs and glass are not allowed at the park. Civic Green Park is located at 9370 Ridgeline Blvd., adjacent to the James H. LaRue Library in Highlands Ranch. For more information, call the Metro District at 303-791-0430 or visit www.highlandsranch.org.
