Upcoming educational seminars in Highlands Ranch

The Highlands Ranch Metro District's Active Adult Programs and Services (AAPS) is offering two educational seminars this spring. AAPS is committed to providing adults age 50 and better with information, resources, activities, events and lifelong learning opportunities that allow them to grow old with the greatest success and satisfaction.

March 21 - Transforming Social Security into a Winning Retirement Strategy

Do you need help understanding your Social Security benefits and how to make them work for you? Brad Hablutzel, MBA, CFS with A & I Financial Services, LLC will lead the discussion and answer your questions. Attend the session to learn about:

- Rules of retirement benefits
- Individual, spousal and survivor benefits
- Collecting strategies
- How Social Security benefits can help you meet your financial goals

The event is from 6 – 7:30 p.m. at the Metro District Service Center, 3280 Redstone Park Cir., Highlands Ranch. The event is free, however pre-registration is required at www.highlandsranch.org/signmeup.

April 21 - Growing Older & Bolder

We are living longer and enjoying healthier lives, but are we ready? At this half-day seminar, learn about:

- Strategies for meeting long term care needs
- Care and housing options
- Why legal paperwork? Getting all your ducks in a row

The event is from 9 a.m. – 1 p.m. at the Hendrick Office Building, 62 Plaza Dr., Highlands Ranch. The cost to attend is $15/person, which includes a box lunch. Pre-registration is required at www.highlandsranch.org/signmeup.
