Celebrate the season at the oldest and best holiday tradition in town - the Holiday Celebration at the Mansion Dec. 7

Ring in the holiday season at the historic Highlands Ranch Mansion on Saturday, Dec. 7 between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Santa will arrive on a fire truck at 10:15 a.m. and will be on site visiting with guests the duration of the event.

The Holiday Celebration is free and open to the public. All ages will enjoy music, gift vendors, face painting, horse-drawn hayrides, reindeer games and more. Self-guided tours of the Mansion, a ginger bread-themed scavenger hunt and a visit with the Douglas County Sheriff's Office mounted patrol will be highlights of the day. Most activities are outdoors, so dress appropriately for the weather. Simply Pizza food truck, Picky Bean coffee roasters, and the Knights of Columbus will be selling food and beverages.

Local elementary school choirs will be performing throughout the day and Douglas County Libraries will be hosting two story times.
