Santa is making a stop in Highlands Ranch Dec. 14

Santa Claus is taking a break from toy making to visit children in Highlands Ranch Saturday, Dec. 14. He will be sitting in his little red house at the corner of Broadway and Plaza Dr. from 9 a.m. to noon anxiously waiting to talk with kids about their holiday wishes.

Santa visits are free and open to all. Parents are encouraged to bring their own camera to capture the moment.

Please park in the Highlands Ranch Metro District parking lot at 62 Plaza Dr., and walk around the building to see Santa. For the safety of those attending and cars driving by, please do not park on Plaza Dr.

For more information, call the Highlands Ranch Metro District at 303-791-0430.

Founded in 1981 as the local government in Highlands Ranch, Colorado, the Metro District provides a variety of municipal services to this planned community of 95,000 people. Learn more about the Metro District at www.highlandsranch.org
